Campaign Offer!

33 HERALDS FOR A SONG.

October 8th to November 9th.

With the threefold object of getting The Herald into the hands of many people who do not read a daily; of demonstrating to those few Democrats who still believe their daily inspiration from the Republican press, that there is an inter-mountain Democratic daily worthy their support; and of assisting in the good work of converting such misguided men of the west as still have faith in Republican fallacies and sectionalism, The Herald Publishing Company will mail for delivery in those towns in which The Herald is regularly delivered) the

BRIEF AND BREEZY.

Home missionary meeting tonight.

Yesterday's clearings were $13,550, as compared with $10,000 for the same day of last year.

The third number of the Lyceum News is at hand. It shows marked improvement in all respects over the preceding numbers.

The officers of the National Guard held a preliminary meeting last night to arrange for a grand ball to take place on the evening of Millitia Day at the fair.

In conversation with General Ottiger yesterday regarding the art exhibit at the coming territorial fair, the general said that this year's display would eclipse all former ones. He was already at a loss to find space.

The unusual degree of enthusiasm manifested by the general public in the territorial fair was due to the arrival of a ten pound son. Mother and child doing well, but Brock was able to hit a time rock for a week.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Rescue Mission yesterday Dr. H. P. McNeely was elected president, Rev. R. F. Clay vice-president, Dr. E. O. Silva secretary, and George B. Burns treasurer and superintendent for the coming year. Work will be resumed in all departments on October 1.

Anode Brigham Young, Jr., and Lewis M. Cannon, have just returned from two weeks' outing in the Tetons of Idaho and Montana. They were away for two weeks, and during that time they killed several elk, deer, antelope, and bear; caught many quantities of fish, and killed a large number of sheep. The gentlemen state that there is an almost unlimited number of acres of good farming land in the district visited by them, all of which can be readily watered at light expense. Homes can be built on the land at a cost of $100 per head keeps cattle in good shape during the closed season.

Abstracts furnished, titles insured and 5 per cent. paid on deposits by Utah Title Insurance and Trust Co., 160 Main street.

The campaign offer of the Herald (see page 8) places the paper within the reach of every man, woman and child in the west.

DEATH OF A COUNT.

San Francisco, Sept. 25.—News has been received here from Tahiti that Count Pestelica, the Austrian nobleman who married J. B. Haggin's daughter, is dead. The news comes in a very roundabout way, yet it is very generally believed. The report is that he died of cholera in one of the Pompa grow in the South sea, where he and the countess have been living with the natives. The news of the count's death was taken from the island by a small schooner which is said to have called there after the count had been buried to Taha Tora island, and from there it was sent by the schooner Le-nat to Tahiti.

IN THE POLITICAL ARENA.

A Lively Day at the Democratic Headquarters.

WITH THE COMMISSION.

REPUBLICAN REGISTRATION RESOLUTION DEFEATED.

President Woodruff's Letter on the Attitude of the Church Leaders in Political Matters—The Republicans Dismissed at the Letter of Henry Lawrence—Wiley Brown and Ex-Governor Thomas Candidates for the Constitutional Convention—Notes.

Matters political were lively around Democratic headquarters yesterday, both territorial and county, but unusually quiet with the Republicans.

While at territorial Democratic headquarters all was bustle and activity, the Republican headquarters at the Wash block had nothing to say beyond the fact that everything was running smoothly. Charles Crane, of Kanosh, walked into the room during the course of the day, took a comprehensive view of matters, said "Humph" and walked out on the street. When last seen he was in earnest conversation with E. E. Ritchie upon some subject of which dependent sayeth not.

At county Republican headquarters, extreme quiet held undisputed sway. Chief Clerk Sam J. Paul and Doc Whitney engaged in earnest conversation inside the ropes, while outside William F. James communed with himself in a silent way. "Anything new?" queried The Herald man. Mr. James shook his head. Whitney, however, while Paul pondered a moment, finally apologized saying, "No, sir."

That's all regarding headquarters in general. On the curb it was learned that Ike Woolf's defeat in the Seventh ward primary is even greater than anticipated, and that Wiley Brown will go to the constitutional convention after all. W. L. Dykes, a Liberal of Liberals, defeated Nick Treweek, the darling of the Nineteenth ward, by a vote of 10 to 1 in caucus. Likewise, while Paul's voice will be heard where Nick's was mapped out to appear.

At the various precinct conventions tonight all the delegates selected to run will be confirmed.

AT THE COMMISSION.

A Republican Resolution Defeated at Yesterday's Special Session.

A special session of the Utah commission held yesterday morning, at which Chairman Letcher and Commissioners Norrell, Sherman and Tatlock were present.

Commissioner Sherman offered the following resolution: Resolved, That in our opinion and in order to secure a full and fair registration, it is the duty of the county registrars to present and answer all reasonable inquiries as to the names on the registration lists, and that an inquiry coming from any citizen, whether or not an officer or any of the regular party organizations as to such names as he desires to inquire about is a reasonable inquiry and should in the interests of fairness be promptly answered.

The vote upon the measure stood: Ayes, Messrs. Sherman and Tatlock—2. Noes, Chairman Letcher and Commissioner Norrell—2. The motion was declared lost for lack of a majority. Although the commission has tried to make itself plain upon this matter, the Tribune by its constant misrepresentation, compels another statement of fact that during this week of revision, only in the larger cities is the registration officer compelled to keep open office. In the smaller cities and in the country can find the registration officer must register the voter, at any time, but outside this circumstance the voter must wait until Saturday, the last day of the revision.

Reports from the lower counties indicate that everything is in splendid condition regarding full and complete registration. The commission yesterday decided unanimously to deny the applications for additional polling places at Blingham, Salt Lake county, Grouse Creek, Box Elder county, Mercur Mill, Utah county, for lack of good and sufficient reasons. The proof regarding the last request was that there were only eight voters and as the election expense would be $12, the average of $1.50 per man, it was considered too heavy a cost to incur. As it is only four miles to the regular poll the men will not suffer.

A Score For Nothing.

The Republicans thought they had discovered another mare's nest yesterday, and in consequence the telephone wire between the Utah commission office and down town was kept warm for some time. The hue and cry was that the precinct registrar, Fred Senior, a Republican by the way, had disappeared, and that unregistered voters were scrambling over each other for the time. The hue and cry was that the precinct registrar, Fred Senior, a Republican by the way, had disappeared, and that unregistered voters were scrambling over each other for the time.

To all inquiries, Chairman Letcher replied that he regretted that the election knew all about Mr. Senior and had selected Samuel Sudbury, who lives next door, to fill his place, and the telephone did not ring again until the arrival of Chairman Crane, which was duly bulletined.

Democratic Campaign Documents.

The following campaign documents have been published by the Democratic territorial committee, order by numbers and send for what you want. Address, Democratic territorial campaign committee, Salt Lake city.

No. 1.—Speech of Heber J. Grant.

No. 2.—Industrial Light Address.

No. 3.—Speech of Hon. J. L. Rawlins in Accepting the Nomination.

No. 4.—Speech of O. W. Powers at the Democratic Territorial Convention.

Constitutional Candidates.

The Eighteenth ward Republican delegation to the Fourth precinct primary last evening agreed on ex-Governor Thomas as the candidate of that ward for delegate to the constitutional convention.

The Seventh ward Republicans agreed upon Wiley Brown as their candidate.

The Twelfth ward Republicans were almost solidly in favor of Judge Zane as their candidate to the constitutional convention.

THE CHURCH AND POLITICS.

Position of Mormon Leaders Defined by President Woodruff.

On Monday The Herald published a report of addresses delivered at Provo on Sunday afternoon by Presidents Woodruff and Cannon. Our reports were read with special interest on account of President Woodruff's reference to politics and the present campaign. It did not appear that anything had been said to arouse the slightest "uneasiness," but the Tribune formulated a letter to President Woodruff, asking that the position of the leaders in the church with respect to political matters be defined. The reply was published in the News last evening, with editorial comment, and is as follows: "Gentlemen—Answering the first question in your note, I have to say that I believe the extract you quote from my report of my remarks at Provo is substantially correct.

To the second, my reply is that 'the control of the political actions of our people absolutely is not set up as a claim in my remarks, and I certainly would not wish them to be so understood.' I hold that it is the right of the priesthood to advise at any and all times and under any circumstances those who profess to respect its powers, in all matters pertaining to their temporal and temporal and spiritual salvation; if in the matter of politics, that the Latter-day Saints should be governed by pure principles, and in political affairs act upon their responsibilities as citizens and not as members of the church. It is not to claim the right to advise them how or for whom they should vote, or which party they should join. We emphatically and sincerely approved the division of the Mormon people on party lines, and we recognize every man's agency and respect his right to choose in these matters for himself. We have not advised and do not advise our people to abstain from voting, or to abstain from voting for any party, or to abstain from voting for any candidate, or to abstain from voting for any issue, or to abstain from voting for any measure, or to abstain from voting for any person, or to abstain from voting for any office, or to abstain from voting for any position, or to abstain from voting for
